BLUESTOCKING
MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE
STAUNTON, VIRGINIA • VOLUME 78

Yes, they grew, even as millions of young Americans, under social pressure and upon the instruction of their elders, struggled to cease growing, which is to say, struggled to "grow up", an excruciatingly difficult goal since it runs contrary to the most central laws of nature — the laws of change and renewal — yet a goal miraculously attained by everyone in our culture except for a few misfits.

Tom Robbins

Those were the days my friends, we thought they'd never end, we'd sing and dance forever and a day, we'd live the life we choose, we'd fight and never lose, for we were young, and sure to have our way.

I remember my youth and the feeling that will never come back anymore — the feeling that I could last forever, outlast the sea, the earth, and all men.
 Conrad

I never let my schooling interfere with my education.

Twain

Commencement Ball

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you

It was but yesterday we met in a dream
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over,
It is no longer dawn.

Gibran

Graduation

The noon tide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day,

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song

And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky.
Gibran

The time has come the Walrus said
To talk of many things Of ships-and-sails-and sealing wax
Of cabbages and kings
And why the sea is boiling hot
And whether pigs have wings.

Psychology

Have you heard a jew's-harp twanging for a cattle-country "brawl",
The breathing of mouth organs in a long log-cabin hall?
It's a trampling shouting music,
with stamping at its end, It's country music in the park with friends and time to spend.

Nothing is at last sacred but the integrity of your own mind. What I must do is all that concerns me, not what the people think. Editing this yearbook has taught me a great many things: about myself and about Mary Baldwin. It is my hope that when you look through this book, you will be able to remember MBC in 1980. I wish to thank Dr. Pancake for having faith in me and hanging in there, Jim Ellis of Hunter Publishing for the thousand favors he has done, and Joy Breed for carrying on the tradition.

There were friends who could always reach me
Through the haze their smiles would greet me Saying OK, saying goodbye, saying hello.
Then I knew that what I was after Was life, love, tears, and laughter
Hello my good friend, hello my darling
What do you know?

Open the door and come on in I'm so glad to see you my friend, You're like a rainbow coming around the bend.
And when I see you happy, well, it sets my heart free I'd like to be as good a friend to you as you are to me.

Footfalls echo in the memory Down the passage which we did not take Towards the door we never opened Into the rose-garden. My words echo Thus, in your mind.

But to what purpose
Disturbing the dust on a bowl of rose-leaves
I do not know.

T.S. Eliot

You will hardly know who I am or what I mean,
But I shall be good health to you nevertheless,
And filter and fibre your blood.

Failing to fetch me at first keep encouraged,
Missing me one place search another,
I stop somewhere waiting for you.
Walt Whitman
